BOOK TWO

LESSON 1

THE SUN IS RISING

Look! The sun is rising.

Oh, how beautiful the sky is!

Look at the birds flying over the sea. How cheerfully they are flying about!

The sun is coming up higher and higher.

The trees and grass on the hills look fresh and green.

Everything looks bright and cheerful when the sun shines.

EXERCISE

Put into Japanese:—

1. When does everything look bright and cheerful?
2. Everything looks bright and cheerful when the sun shines.
3. Look at the beautiful stars in the sky.
4. You look very happy.

LESSON 2

THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR

Spring has come.

The cherry-trees by the school-gate are in full bloom.

How beautiful they are!

It is April now, and the new school year has already begun.

We have two hundred new girls in our school now. They have new books and new notebooks.

One of their books is the First English Reader. They begin to learn English.

We are now in the second year, and we use the Second English Reader.

Miss Ikeda gives us English lessons.

She is a very good teacher and we enjoy her lessons very much.

EXERCISE

(A) Answer in English:—

1. What season is it now?
2. Can you see any cherry-flowers in your school-grounds?
3. Has the new school year begun?

4. How many new girls have you in your school?
5. Are you in the first year or in the second year?
6. Which reader do you use, the first reader or the second reader?
7. Who gives you English lessons?

(B) Put into English:—

1. 今は春です。
2. これは第二英語讀本です。
3. 私は二年生です。
4. 英語の先生はどなたですか。
5. 山田先生です。

LESSON 3

A BUTTERFLY'S STORY

I am a butterfly. Am I not pretty?

Boys and girls like me very much. They want to catch me, and they run after me. But they cannot catch me, for I have wings and fly about very well.

But by and by I shall die.

Once I was not a butterfly. I was a caterpillar. I could not fly about then, for I had no wings.

By and by I went to sleep. I slept and slept.

But one morning I became a pretty butterfly.

Now, boys and girls, you were not always boys and girls.

Some years ago you were all babies. Soon you will be men and women. Then you will be able to serve your country in many ways.

EXERCISE

(A) 次の文の動詞を過去の形に變へよ。

1. I am a little girl.
2. Boys and girls like me very much.
3. They run after me.
4. I have wings.

2. 私は一年生ではありません。
3. あなたは少年ではありません。

LESSON 4

THE TRUE FRIENDS

Three butterflies, a white one, a red one, and a yellow one, were once playing in the sunshine. They danced now on this flower, now on that. But while they were playing, it began to rain.

So they went to the Tulip with red and yellow stripes.

“Tulip!” they said, “Will you please open your flower a little, and let us in?”

“The red and the yellow butterflies may come in,” said the Tulip, “but not the white one.”

“If you won't let our friend in,” said the red and the yellow butterflies, “we won't come in, either, thank you.”

Then it rained harder and harder, and they flew to the Lily.

They asked the Lily to open her flower a little and let them in.

“I will let in the white butterfly, as she is like myself,” said the Lily, “but not the other two.”

“If you cannot take in my friends,” said the white butterfly, "I won't come in, either."

"How true the butterflies are to one another!" said the Sun, "I will help them."

He drove away the dark clouds and began to shine.

So they played about all day long, and when evening came, they flew away home.

EXERCISE

(A) Answer in English.—

1. What were the three butterflies doing in the sunshine?
2. Did it begin to rain?

LESSON 5 MARY IS ILL

(1)

Last Friday, Mary had a bad headache in the evening. So she went to bed early.

Since then she has been ill in bed and has been absent from school for a week.

But the doctor says that it is nothing serious, and now she has got well again.

Her mother says that she can go to school next Monday.

(2)

They came here yesterday, but we have come here today.

It was cloudy last week, but it has been fine this week.

I wrote five letters last month, but I have written only two letters this month.

We had much rain last year, but we have had little rain this year.

EXERCISE

2. ありがとうございます。大層元氣です。
3. あなたのお母様はいかがですか。

LESSON 6

THE LADIES' COLLEGE AT CHELTENHAM

Cheltenham is a small town in the West of England.

At Cheltenham there are several schools for boys and for girls.

The most important school for girls is the Ladies' College.

It is a very large school, and there are many teachers and a great many pupils: more than a thousand girls.

Some are day-girls; they go to school and live in town with their parents or friends: others are boarders and live in boarding-houses.

There are twelve boarding-houses for the boarders, and about forty girls in each boarding-house.

At College, the little girls under twelve are in the third division.

The girls from twelve to fifteen are in the second division, and the girls over fifteen are in the first division. In each division there are several forms.

Alice is thirteen years old, and she belongs to the fourth form of the second division.

EXERCISE

(A) Answer in English:-

1. Where is Cheltenham?
2. What is the most important school for girls in Cheltenham?
3. How many boarding-houses has the Ladies' College?
4. How many girls are there in each boarding-house?
5. How old is Alice?
6. To which form does Alice belong?

(B) 空所に適当な語を補へ。

1. Sunday is the _____ day of the week.
Monday is the _____ day of the week.
2. March is the _____ month of the year.
April is the _____ month of the year.

(C) Put into English :—

1. 私どもの学校は町の東部にあります。
2. 私は伯母と一しよに住んでゐます。

LESSON 7

AN ENGLISH SCHOOLGIRL

Look at Alice. She wears a felt hat and she carries a school-bag. She is now going to school: it is a quarter to nine.

When she arrives at College, she goes first to the day-girls' dressing-room, hangs up her hat and coat, takes off her shoes, and puts on her college-shoes.

At nine o'clock, all the girls go, in a long line, one behind another, to a very big hall.

There the Lady Principal reads prayers, and sometimes speaks to the girls.

At half past nine school begins.

Alice goes with her form, and has two lessons.

There is a short break at eleven o'clock.

She has two more lessons after the break; and school is over at one o'clock.

Then Alice goes back to the dressing-room.

The girls dress there in silence: they are not allowed to talk in passages and dressing-rooms.

She puts her college-shoes in her shoe-bag, which she hangs on her peg; she fastens her shoes quickly, puts on her hat and coat and walks home.

EXERCISE

(A) Answer in English :—

1. What does Alice wear on her head when she goes to school?
2. Where does she go first when she arrives at College?
3. When does school begin at her College?
4. How many lessons does she have in the morning?
5. When is school over at her College?

(B) 次の各組の單文を接續詞で結び、一つの文とせよ。

1. { She gets up.
She washes her face and hands.
2. { He takes his bag.
He opens the door.
He goes out.

(C) Put into English :—

1. 春枝は毎朝七時四十五分に學校に着きます。
2. 校長先生は時々私どもにお話をして下さいます。

LESSON 8
A SHOWER

Look, there are black clouds in the sky.

How fast they move along!

They have hidden the sun. I am sure we shall soon have rain.

There is one little bit of blue sky still.

Now there is no blue sky at all. the whole sky is covered with the black clouds. How dark it is!

Now it has begun raining.

What big drops! The ducks are very glad; but the little birds are not glad; they are going back to their nests in the trees.

Now the rain is over. It was only a shower.

The sky is still grey, but the sun is shining brightly through the clouds.

Oh, look at the rainbow! How beautiful it is!
